WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1866.

There can be no apology, no ex ouse for such uncandid, insincere, hypocritical articles as appeared in the editorial columns of the Conrier of yesterday. We have an abundance of charity. we have enough of it for all proper purposes but we are not so stupid as not to see, that our neighbor, in publishing such matter, acts under the influence of grossly selfish and unworthy and discreditable consideraons. Great Hobson Meeting at Frankfort. FRANKFORT, KY., July 29, 1866. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: GMNTLEMEN: We had a most glorions 'Hohson Rally' at the Court-honse in this place last night—one that roused up the spirits of the Union men of this locality in most encouraging manner. After but widely-circulated notice that W. C. Whitaker and Ex-Gov. J. F. Gen. W. C. Whitaker and Ex-Gov. J. F. Robinson would address the citizens of Frankfort, the Union men were not laggard in making their appearance in due time and in strong force. At the appointed hour, Gen. W. monnied the rostrum, and for over two hours poured forth grape, canister, and red-hot shot into the ranks of what the General called the Missouri-refingue-rebel party, to such an extent that it is the opinion of the Union men present that the "Johnnies" wou to be able to recover themselves hetween this and the 6th of Angast. The speech fore been calling themselves Union men, but at the present time are too tender-footed to vote for either Hohson or buvall, and probably some few for the latter. Are they aware of the fact that at the present time men who, during the time they were serving their country and under orders, impressed horses, &c., are, now that they are out of the service, being arrested tried by juries of their political opponents, convicted, and sent to the penitrentiary for simply obeying orders and doing their duty as soldiers in the cause of the Union? At the present time, whilst we Rebeldom, we would like to be informed of it. We defy him to produce a Duvall man, in this section of the country, who is not a thorough dyed-in-the-wool rebel. Has Andy forgotten the Convention held at the court house in this country on the first Monday in April last by the 'lemgerary to nominate delegates to the first of May Convention, and candidates to fill the various country offices at the ensuine August election, in at the ensuing August election, in which the first qualification which both delegates and caudidates were required to possess, was that of being a rebel, heart and soul, and if either had been in the rebel army, all the more acceptable was to the convention? Will Andy mention one single eandidate or delegate appointed by that convention who had not here are e a Union man as Governor, when the tre a Union man as Governor, when the cts are made known to him, all such privites are at once turned ont; but if we at this rebel party into power, will Union idders so tried and convicted be released en? Tender-footed Union men, you all better look before you leap, or you ill put your neck into a halter before me are aware of it. Those who were serrillas, and stole horses by the wholele, are all "hunkidori;" no punishment or them.

sale, are all "hunkidori," no punishment for them.

But at the Bald Knob precinct, where the Confeds have everything pretty much their own way, they openly assert that no "Yankee" shall vote there on election day. Union men, are you disfranchised becames you wore the hine? It is an open boast with them that they are going to get the reins of power in their hands and then they will repudiate our National debt and assume the Confederate debt. Union men, are you are vote for Duvall.

Union men, will you vote for Duvall, nominated by the "so-called," and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called, and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called, and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called, and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called, and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called, and, if elected, will favor only the "so-called," snpported by the "so-called, and if elected, will favor only the same length of time were right—that the wearing of the gray honorable? If you are ready to a say all that you only the same length of time were right—that the wearing of the gray honorable? If you are ready to a say all that you only the same length of time were right—that the wearing of the gray honorable? If you are ready to cast a vote that will that you have done driving the last five years was wrong, and that those whom you have been ughting the same length of time were right—that the wearing of the gray honorable? If you are ready to a solution of the foliated nd wanting at any time or any occasion-t is true that some few-ery few-who e served in the Union army for a hrief gth of time, are for 'Jeff. Duval, but, length of time, are for "Jeff Duvall," but, when you look into the record of those chaps you are sure to find that there is something rotten about them, resigned to keep from being court-martialed, negger on the brain, sudden attack of "chronic disability," or something of that kind, but if the truth was only known they only went into the service for what they could make ont of it in the first place.

If you think after all that you have gone through and suffered in the camp, in the trenches, on the march, in the skirmish line, on packet, in heat, in cold, in wet, in dry, hungry and hasf-naked, in the hospital, in Libby, on Belle lule, at Andersonville, in the bloody and dead y conflict where you have seen your fathers, brotheld, it is incurable? He says. "Will the Journal and its readers all with election of Divuill to go forth to the country as a rebel triumph in Kentucky?" What else can they do when that would certainly be the case? Ito he and his party expect the lival men of Kentucky to aid them in hiding from the world the shame in which they are striving to enshroud Kentucky s fair name? Does he expect that they will be such cravens as, after having fought them for five long years on the bloody fields of the South, and conquired them in the most tremendous struggle the world ever saw, the conquerers will now come back and crouch in a jeet submission to the conquered, and say to them. "We ware m taken all the time; you were the leyel men, not we. Will you be pleased now to take us under the protection of your wings?" But we ugh of the.

Notwithstanding Andy we restations to the cortrary, all Kentucky is satisfied that this is nothing more nor less than a contest between Union men, with the gallant Hobson for their staudard-bearer, and rebels, under the leadersh p of Alvin Du wal. Let every tree Union man but do lis duty to himself and Kentucky, and he will yet give a good account of herself At dys third, last, and most futile at a nit was the prave himself avery great wit at the expanse of the Journal. In this he has so signally failed—for his with the men unterly unint highle to any one save hit ell, and the editor of the Courier partiel—that, like our it ustrious President. "I do not deem it worth while to ver the way ammunt on on a dead duck." where you have seen your fathers, brothers, relatives, and comrades either killed or maimed for life. I say, after you have gone through all this for over four years you think that those who tried for the same length of time to district all that you were endeavoring to save and uphold, if they are better Union men than you are, then yote for Davall & Co., and at the same time strike down your ild compannowledge that you was a fool and that itors and treeson were honorable but for functe. Remember the first Mony in August, and vote as you have ht—against your enemies.
Yours, truly, A HOBSONITE.

ADROIT ROCUE.—An exceedingly adroit fagery was perpetrated on the Navy Department a few days ago. A man dressing himself as a Purser in the navy, procured the signature of Secretary Welles to vouchers bearing the faged signature of the Captain and Purser of the vessel to which he claimed to belong, upon which he obtained a treasury warrant for fifty thousand dollars, payable at Philadelphia After receiving the warrant he went to Philadelphia, and instead of going to the Assitant Treasurer, upon whom it was drawn, and where he would have been required to have proved his identity, he pre-Tours. truly, VERITA

The bank fell into the trap, and allowed by the next day to draw out the whole five two or fifty-three thousand dollars. Hen Purser Allen's account came back othe Treasury to be and ted, it was thought trange that so large an amount should have been drawn at one time, and Mr.

Allen was written to Gen. John B Huston addressed a large audience here last night in behalf of the electron of Gen. Hobson to the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals, and in an effort masterly power and exhaustive range he gave new intensity to the blaze of enthusiasm that runs high in our midst for our noble standard-hence in this race. The bank fell into the trap, and allowed him the next day to draw out the whole flyvtwo or fifty-three thousand dollars. When Purser Allen's account came back to the Treasury to be and ited, it was thought strange that so large an amount should have been drawn at one time, and Mr. Allen was written to for an explanation of the subject, when it was discovered the whole proceeding was a swindle. The loss will fall upon the bank which paid the warrant, the sharper having meanwhile decamped for parts unknown.

Gold.—The New York World states that a combination of capitalists in New York have bought $6,000,000 in gold, and intend to buy more, in order to run up the price when there is a favorable opportunity. These combinations are frequently made, but they fail in their object quite as often as they succeed. Gold speculating, like any other kind of venture, frequently ends in breaking those who indulge in it.

Andy seems to have had a threefold object in view. First. To make a very great stir in the political world, and to alarm somebody, if possible, as evidenced by his heading, "Look out for a change of base.
